

Online Deposits

Did you know you have the convenience of making deposits to your accounts at Richardson Wealth Limited using your online banking site? Simply log on to your personal banking website from the comfort of your home and transfer funds.

Here is how it works:

1. Log on to your online banking website.
2. Follow your financial institution's instructions to set up a new payee in the bill payment area.
3. Set up a new payee by searching for "RF".
4. The results page should return "RF Securities Clearing LP".
5. You will then be prompted to enter your account number. Enter one of your eight-character Richardson Wealth account numbers with no hyphens or spaces, using uppercase letters where necessary.

Note the following letters are not used in our account structure numbers: i, o, L.

6. You're done!

Please note: Repeat the steps above if you are sending money to more than one Richardson Wealth account.

This service is only available to Canadian dollar accounts.
